Children

Children

Patterns included in this category either depict scenes in which children are the primary focus of the design or designs that incorporate a message for children. These may include fairy tales, moral lessons, or basic learning exercises such as numbers or the alphabet.