

© Victoria and Albert Museum, London. Inv. 755-1908

Additional Image:

enlarge [+]

Tile of porcelain transfer-printed in crimson with a bust portrait of Queen Caroline, Minton & Co., Stoke-on-Trent, 1900-1908.© Victoria and Albert Museum, London. Inv. 756-1908

Shape Type Miscellaneous Pattern Type Commemorative, Heraldic and Historical Events Date 1900-1908 Dimensions

• Length: 11.40 in (28.96 cm) • Width: 8.30 in (21.08 cm)

Maker Minton & Co.

Description:

Tile of porcelain transfer-printed in crimson with a bust portrait of George IV. Maker's mark "MINTONS" [inscribed on a label placed across a globe with a crown above] / "ENGLAND". Inscription printed in crimson: "GEORGE IV. / Born Augt.12.1762, proclaimed King of Engld.Jan.31.1820." This example was given by Minton to the V&A in 1908 although depicts subjects from nearly 90 years earlier.

BACK TO CATALOG INDEX

Victorian Tiles

View All

Commemorative, Heraldic and Historical Events

View All

Examples by Maker

View All

Print Type Indexd

View All